

CloudDesk SaaS - Customer Support and Refund Policy

Version 3.2 | Effective: March 1, 2024 | Applies to all CloudDesk subscription plans.

1. Subscription Plans and Pricing

- Starter Plan: $29/month - Up to 3 users, 10 GB storage, email support only.
- Professional Plan: $99/month - Up to 20 users, 100 GB storage, email and live chat support.
- Enterprise Plan: $399/month - Unlimited users, 1 TB storage, 24/7 phone and priority support.
- Annual billing: 20% discount applied. No refunds on annual plans after 30-day trial.

2. Free Trial Policy

All new accounts receive a 14-day free trial with full Professional Plan features. No credit card required for the trial. At the end of the trial, accounts are automatically downgraded to a read-only state until a plan is selected. Trial extensions of up to 7 days may be granted once per account at support team discretion.

3. Refund Policy

Monthly plans: Customers may request a full refund within 7 days of any monthly billing date. Requests made after 7 days are not eligible for a refund for that billing period. The subscription will be cancelled at the end of the current period.

Annual plans: A full refund is available within 30 days of the annual payment date. After 30 days, a prorated refund is available for unused complete months only, minus a $50 administration fee.

Non-refundable items: Setup fees, add-on purchases (extra storage, API calls), and professional services engagements are non-refundable under any circumstances.

4. Service Level Agreement (SLA)

- Starter: Best-effort response within 2 business days. No uptime SLA.
- Professional: Response within 8 business hours. 99.5% monthly uptime SLA.
- Enterprise: Response within 1 hour (24/7). 99.9% monthly uptime SLA. Dedicated account manager.
- SLA credits: If uptime falls below guaranteed levels, customers receive 10% credit per 0.1% below threshold.

5. Data and Security Incidents

In the event of a confirmed data breach affecting customer data, CloudDesk will notify affected customers within 72 hours. Customers affected by a breach are entitled to: 3 months free service credit, complimentary data export, and priority migration support if they choose to cancel. Customers must submit data breach compensation claims within 90 days of the breach notification.

6. Account Cancellation

- Monthly plans: Cancel anytime. Access continues until end of current billing period.
- Annual plans: Cancel anytime. No refund after 30-day window unless due to SLA breach.
- Data retention: All customer data is retained for 30 days after cancellation, then permanently deleted.
- Reactivation: Accounts can be reactivated within the 30-day retention window with all data intact.

7. Dispute Resolution and Escalation

Step 1: Contact support via ticket or live chat. Target resolution: 1 to 3 business days.

Step 2: If unresolved, escalate to Support Team Lead. Target resolution: 5 business days.

Step 3: Escalate to Customer Success Manager (Professional and Enterprise plans only).

Step 4: Final escalation to VP of Customer Experience. Binding decisions made within 10 business days.

Legal disputes are governed by the laws of the State of Delaware. Arbitration is required before litigation.

8. Prohibited Use and Termination

CloudDesk reserves the right to immediately terminate accounts found to be sending spam, hosting illegal content, performing DDoS attacks, scraping data at scale without permission, or reselling access without authorisation. No refund is issued upon termination for policy violations.

9. Plan Upgrades and Downgrades

Upgrades take effect immediately. The customer is charged a prorated amount for the remainder of the billing period at the new plan rate. Downgrades take effect at the start of the next billing cycle. Data exceeding the lower plan's storage limit must be reduced before the downgrade is processed, or the account will be locked.
